United States' Sanatory Commission
In view of the great good accomplished by the United States' Sanatory Commission, for the relief of the wounded and sick amongst the soldiers of the army and those of the Southern men who are prisoners in their hands, it has been thought proper, on the part of the Americans resident in this city, to contribute to these objects. At the suggestion, therefore, of some friends, the undersigned have assumed the responsibility of calling a general meeting of their countrymen, in the hope that the call will be responded to, and the representative of the United States in this country, the Hon. Mr. Kirk has expressed his sympathy with the movement, and kindly offered his rooms as the place of meeting. The undersigned, therefore, request all who wish to favour the plan, to assemble at the rooms of Mr. Kirk, on Monday, the 20th inst., at three o'clock, p.m., for the purpose of consultation, and for the appointment of committees, to give a formal character to the suggestion.

SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1864.

A NEW ERA

When, after the affair of Pavon, General Mitre was unanimously elected President of the re-united Argentine nation, we predicted a new era of progress and civilisation for the River Plate. And looking back on the last two years, it cannot but be confessed that hardly any district in South America has made such rapid strides, in every department, as Buenos Ayres. Our Post-office returns show an increase of over 200 per cent; the steam traffic boats five now lines of ocean steamers, four new railways have been commenced, banking and insurance companies have sprung up, immigration has doubled, cotton planting has made some progress, the San Juan silver mines have come into notice, numberless new enterprises have been set on foot, and some millions sterling laid out in endowing this city with splendid public and private edifices.

But even our most sanguine expectations will fall far short of the glorious reality, and we have now the cheering assurance that English capitalists turn their attention to our shores as a profitting field for industry and safe investment. One of the financial joint-stock companies which lately started in the Argentine Central Railway into the monetary world, has given instructions to an agent in this city to invest two hundred thousand pounds sterling in land. It is not many weeks ago that we heard of one thousand square leagues of land in the interior being sold for two hundred thousand silver dollars, so that at the same rate the above sum would purchase a territory exactly the size of Wales. This gigantic investment is not merely a speculation, with the purpose of leaving the land idle until circumstances make it rise in value. In fact, twenty-five thirty millions of acres will be converted into a great colony, counting, perhaps, one hundred thousand souls, with their farms, cotton-plantations, cereal crops, and divers other branches of agriculture, will be carried on in a manner and on a scale heretofore unknown in South America.

Besides this great enterprise we know of a dozen smaller joint-stock companies already formed or in formation, at Glasgow, Liverpool, London, Dublin and other cities in the United Kingdom, with capitals of £2,000 and upwards. Some are in treaty for lands in Cordaba, others in Santa Fe, and we mentioned last week a tract of 33 square leagues sold in Entre Rios, the latter province A few bargains are picked up daily: we hear of two sq. leagues, distant only six miles from Fray's Bento (station on the Great Western railway), sold recently for 140 doubloons (£470 sterling). Even at present the Government of Cordoba has disposed of any quantity of public lands at 100 doubloons per league. The Government of Santiago has stopped the sale of land at their willing to wait a year, as this was nothing but a waste of public treasure.

When we take into account the land-grant of the Cordoba railway, nearly one million acres, which will be mostly settled on and cut up in farms before ten years, we can safely calculate that the adjacent lands in Sta. Fe and Cordoba will be enhanced tenfold in value as the finest provinces offer decidedly the best field for investment. An immense tide of emigration, chiefly from Ireland, will soon be turned hitherward, and we have reason to believe that the National and Provincial Governments intend to aid, as far as in them lies, this great element of progress.

Apropos of land companies we learn that a German house in this city has received orders from Germany to purchase estancias in the Banda Oriental, but Flores' revolution has completely prevented its making any investments of the kind.

The simple fact of the Imperial Finance Co. of London investing One million silver dollars in lands of the Argentine republic is a proof of the growing interest taken in these countries by Englishmen, and may be reckoned the first fruits of Mr. Wilcken's plan; great enterprise which has inaugurated for us a new and happy era.

COMMERCIAL GRIEVANCES.

When a failure occurs in Buenos Ayres, it is the talk of all town for a few days; the matter is looked into, a meeting of creditors is called, and generally speaking the bankrupt's books are so got up as to present a sunny prospect of fifty, 70, and even 100 per cent, at a dividend amongst the creditors. Things not being, therefore, so bad as was first imagined, the affair is handed over to an assignee to wind up, and after a week or so the public lose sight of the matter. Our attention, however, has been recently called to a failure which occurred about six months ago. The bankrupt had carried on a sort of semi wholesale and retail business, had three shops in the city, and was doing a rather brisk business, when suddenly the news spread that the principal had failed, a meeting of the creditors was at once called, and a deficit approaching a million and a half in currency discovered. People stared at the figures and wondered how a man in so small a way of business could in so short a time incur such liabilities; nothing of the kind. A long story short, an assignee was appointed, an auction called, the goods sold, and the whole affair wound up. But such a winding up we think this day at the creditors has paid to the creditors, neither has there been any meeting called.

Yesterday the bankrupt's stores are again open, the former clerk and patron having changed places; that is to say, the clerk is now proprietor and the proprietor clerk. Carts are loading from the number of peons constantly at work, carts loading and people going in and out, it is believed that the success of the first attempt is being done. The three stores of the bankrupt are all in full thing, and one of the creditors is not the probability of the new man having a large account with one of our private banks.

For various motives we have been induced to keep this matter back, but that our readers may not be on the wrong scent, we believe the bankrupt in question and Civalleri were fellow-countrymen.

Several similar cases, our informant states, could be quoted, to show the great want of a Bankrupt Court in this city, but we consider the foregoing sufficient.

There is another species of business which we think ought to be looked upon here is regarded as legitimate, whilst at home it is deemed downright swindling, and that is buying goods on three, four, or five months' credit, and before the goods are delivered, sending them to the auctioneer to be sold for cash. A stop should be put to this business, and no auctioneer should be permitted to do it, unless he can prove that the above sum would purchase a territory exactly the size of Wales. This gigantic investment is not merely a speculation, with the purpose of leaving the land idle until circumstances make it rise in value. In fact, twenty-five thirty millions of acres will be converted into a great colony, counting, perhaps, one hundred thousand souls, with their farms, cotton-plantations, cereal crops, and divers other branches of agriculture, will be carried on in a manner and on a scale heretofore unknown in South America.

Besides this great enterprise we know of a dozen smaller joint-stock companies already formed or in formation, at Glasgow, Liverpool, London, Dublin and other cities in the United Kingdom, with capitals of £2,000 and upwards. Some are in treaty for lands in Cordaba, others in Santa Fe, and we mentioned last week a tract of 33 square leagues sold in Entre Rios, the latter province A few bargains are picked up daily: we hear of two sq. leagues, distant only six miles from Fray's Bento (station on the Great Western railway), sold recently for 140 doubloons (£470 sterling). EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday there was more excitement than usual. The weather was fine, the streets free of mud, no new failures had occurred, and, in fact, Buenos Ayres was in a good humor.

About 12 o'clock a special 'chasque' arrived from Barracas, with the glorious news that Admiral Mud had been defeated by a number of Basques in a slight engagement which took place on Calle Buen Orden Hill. The cuts or trenches which the Admiral had made in the hill were quickly filled up, and Barracas was saved.

It is current that Mr. Wells will be recompensed for the loss of his balloon and Mr. Postlaroto, the opera manager, we hear has offered to give him a benefit.

We perceive that Sr. Rieatra has been appointed, by the President, a Commissioner for the classification of the National Debt. Owing to the number of claims which were sent in, it was found that the Commissioners were too few to do the work, the President, therefore, named the talented M. Rieatra.

Yesterday the well-known express waggon of Messrs. Barry and Walker, the popular English grocers, was seen going at a frightful speed down Calle Bolivar, with a cask of wine and a barrel of sugar on board. As the driver of the waggon was not an inmate of the house considered invested with liberty to show off. Luckily, a heroic Italian came to the rescue, caught the reins, and after a struggle of brevity which astonished the crowd: he dragged along the street for yards and yards, but he would not let go. At last the brave gave up, and a few sleepy vigilantes made their appearance when the danger was over. The horse, waggon, wine, and sugar were immediately arrested and, we suppose, all put in the stocks.

We understand that a meeting has been held at the Provincial Government House, and that the proposal to extend the Northern Railway is ordered to run midway between Campana and Pilar, has been withdrawn. Owing to various difficulties not any great deviation, we should prefer that the line passed by the towns of Pilar and Capilla, which are the centres of very important farming districts.

The 'Eco' of S Nicolas has we properly commenced to excuse by demanding a bridge over the river Medina. Nothing is more necessary at our increasing traffic with Santa Fe; and we reckon that the expense would not exceed $500,000 m/c.

The same paper has an attack on the Postmaster-General, a la 'Pueblo' but Sec. Lacasa has come forward with honor testimony on his behalf. The numerous reforms, and great attention paid by him to the department which increased 100 per cent. annually, are well known to the public.

The price of maize and hay is so monstrously high that the cause is said to be that people who formerly drove stylishly through town in tilbury's, mikords, &c., are now obliged to walk or go in the tram, as they cannot afford or more to support a horse than a man. Many people will hardly believe this, but it is an undeniable fact, as such is the extraordinary rise in fodder.

Sr. Balcarce, Argentine Minister at London and Paris, has sent orders to the agents in Europe to purchase 500 shares (£1000) in the stock of the Central Argentine Railway. Our remarks on Argentine capitalists have had some effect, for 500 shares were allotted yesterday: Messrs. Miro 50, Cascallares 20, Frias, 2, Carmen 30, Pacheco, Pereyra, and others 65 shares.

If we had Coroner's inquests here, the Municipality must have been long ago transported to Lunatic Asylum. Every day we hear of fresh accidents owing to the perilous state of the roads around town. On Thursday evening a cart was upset at the Barranca of calle Largo, opposite the English Grammar school: A poor woman was thrown into the water, but promptly rescued from suffocation and treated with every care in the adjoining house

The following amusing anecdote has to-day: among her passengers is the Prussian Minister, Baron Von Gulich, diplomatic agent at the three republics of the River Plate, it will be remembered that this gentleman initiated his illustrious friend and countryman Humboldt, two years ago, crossing the immense territory between Asuncion and Salto del Uruguay. The steamer takes a cargo of railway materials arrived per Albert, for the Villa Rica line.

A new English drapery establishment is about to be opened in calle Defensa: this business will soon be overdone.

We notice several new buildings about calle Buen Orden, near the intended terminus of the Great Southern: this is a sign of the times.

Peaceable people will rejoice that the friends of disorder who left this city for Montevideo and Entre Rios have been caught by the cruisers of the Banda Oriental Government.

Respecting the English Dramatic Co. we find another Richmond in the field, a gentleman who has been some time in the camp, and possesses both vocal and mimic talents.

A Peruvian meeting is to take place to-morrow in the Plaza Victoria: public opinion has very much calmed down since the publication of Sr. Mazarredo's memorandum.

The Directors of the Central Argentine railway seem well to know us a list at this office: yesterday when the collector came round we induced a gentleman just arrived to take 5 shares for us: without any commission. It seems three-fourths of the share-holders here are foreigners, but some English houses figure very small.

UNITED STATES' SANITARY COMMITTEE

We call attention to an advertisement in another column, respecting this praiseworthy body. On Monday next, at three o'clock, a meeting is to be held at the Hon. Mr. Kirk's residence, for the purpose of raising subscriptions for the sick and wounded soldiers in the army of the United States, and also for the poor Southerners who are in captivity in the North. We are not to say great friends to subscriptions, but we think that for so meritorious a purpose none will refuse their mite.

No matter in what light people may regard the present lamentable struggle going on in the States, no matter which side possesses their sympathy, we think that in this hour of affliction, we should all subscribe to alleviate the sufferings of the poor soldiers.

In the days of their prosperity, no people on the face of the globe subscribed with greater liberality or munificence than the Americans: their money, their ships, their produce, were always at the disposal of suffering humanity, no matter on what continent, or in what zone.

During the Irish famine, how many thousands have been rescued from starvation by the timely supplies from America? We can well remember the multitude of despairing people to whom the American eagle, like the raven of the Scriptures, brought food and nourishment. And this generous sympathy opened her wide arms to receive two millions of Irish exiles, who must otherwise have perished on the hillsides and highways of their native land.

Again, when the operatives of Lancashire were thrown into destitution by the cotton famine, the Federal Government and other vessels were laden with provisions and clothing for the sufferers; and this generosity, on the part of the Americans, was highly creditable, inasmuch as there was actually at the time a rupture of relations between England and the Confederate States. And if we descend to individual cases, we find George Peabody, an American citizen, making a princely donation of £10,000 of silver dollars to the poor of the city of London, which met, in some manner, millers and England, a debtor to the United States.

It would not be difficult to prove that our American brethren have much more than a claim upon the sympathies for whom a similar contribution has been made in England. We rest, therefore, confident, that Mr. Kirk's invitation will be responded to by many those who listen to the calls of suffering humanity, and cherish the ties of national consanguinity.

THE CHANNEL FLEET.

From the Orb.

Admiralty, May 2, 1864.

My dear Dacres,—Here are your secret instructions. They are drawn up by me, and are, I think, very clever.

G. PAGET.

Admiralty, May 2, 1864.

Sir, "The fleet under your command being about to proceed to the Baltic, I am directed by my Lords to give you the following instructions for your guidance:—

1. You will carefully read and at the same time understand, all the enclosed papers on the Schleswig-Holstein question, and, having so read them, you will communicate your impressions to Captain Horsley, your flag captain.

2. Captain Horsley will, in a similar manner, communicate his impressions to you.

3. It is not considered necessary for the junior officers to attempt the solution of the question.

4. On reaching the Baltic the question will naturally recure to you—What am I to do? To this question it is not easy to give the requisite answer.

5. The leading principle of my Lords' policy of Her Majesty's Government as shown in two blue books forwarded herewith.

6. My Lords, however, advise you to be careful.

7. My Lords likewise advise you not to be careful, but recommend to you that happy mixture of recklessness and caution which I show to such advantage in my answers to questions in Parliament.

8. My Lords feel sure that, with these clear instructions, you cannot go wrong. At the same time they reserve to themselves any credit there may be if you do right.

9. In conclusion I am desired by my Lords to recommend you most earnestly to keep your weather-eye open and look out for squalls.

10. Admiral Fitzroy has received instructions to keep you informed which way the wind blows.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

your obedient servant,

CHARLES WOOD.

Rear-Admiral Sydney Colpoys Dacres, C. B.

THE NEW SPANISH LOAN

It appears that the parties to the arrangements stated by the Epoca to have been made for supplying £6 millions of Spain with £2,000,000 in gold and silver are Messrs. Baring, Gibbs, and Mildred. It is not believed, however, that the transaction can be one of the nature described by that journal. At a juncture like the present it is unlikely that three firms, each of which has a place in the direction of the Bank of England, would enter into a commitment to send such a sum of money out of the country, not for commercial purposes, but to serve the inconvenience which the Government of Spain encounters as the consequence of the civil war existing in Spain, and the foreign creditors; and on the condition that they shall participate in future credit or industrial schemes that may be promoted in that country. Such a step would place them in opposition to all the warnings which cautious persons have lately been endeavouring to impress, but it would also be a violation of the claims of the certificate holders unless a settlement of those claims shall have been at the same time accomplished. Hence whatever may have been the circumstances in which the statement originated, no one doubts that the real explanation will differ widely from the account in the Epoca, and that it not prove in any way inconsistent with the high character of the eminent firms names have been used by that journal.

Shakespeare in the Gem Class

To the Editors of the 'Standard.'

Gentlemen,

"Ben Bacon Gentleman!" And here I am again.

My tragedy is not yet finished, but I hope to have it in time for the first representation of the English Dramatic Company. Between you and me, I have no faith in compositions that are struck off in an electric telegraph style, and I believe that anything that is worth doing well which is worth doing at all. You mention, in your last, the name of Sr. Mansilla's tragedy of 'Atar-Gull' we composed in 48 hours; and in one of your papers of last year, it is observed that Major Rickard's "Mining Journey across the Andes" was written on his way home, by the French packet, from Buenos Ayres to Bordeaux. I am not an admirer in principle of Alfred Tennyson, than either of these authors, for he keeps all his poetry, for twelve months after writing, before it is published.

Now, to give you a synoptical account of my tragedy for your approbation: Its title being "The Santafesino Medean; or, the Gaucho Desdemona." The dramatis personæ are—Señor Don Juan Jones, Ix Señorita Betsy Jane, La Señora Bella (mother of Betsy Jane, and a washerwoman); three other washerwomen; Don Tomas, the Gaucho Deceiver; Don Carlos Grasso, an Italian Padre; Pedro Pizzicatty (a Cachman, peon); a pulpero, an owl, group of bisacheros, a black cat, and a white bull-dog. Scenes of love and horror, set off by beer, at a tambo; incidents of a like combination of deceit, sublimity, and harmony at a quadrille party; the awful Battle at a saladero, are its grand attractions.

Now, ad rem? Will you buy my manuscript, Mr.——, and what will you give for it?

Yours to command.

THE SPIRIT OF WALKER.

PRODUCE MARKET

Liverpool, May 6, 1864.

Since our circular of the 7th ult., the arrivals from the River Plate comprise the John Ritson, from Buenos Ayres, the Flygaren and Son, from Montevideo, and the Lima and Uhl, Hull steamers from both ports, bringing 13,793 dry, and 2715 salted ox hides and 2800 salted horse hides. The Marin Burns, from Buenos Ayres, and the Eagle and Linwood from Rio Grande, have likewise arrived with cargoes of wool, bones, bone ash, &c. From other quarters the principal imports of hides are confined to 426 West Coast, 2165 Bengal, and 21,000 East India.

During the week the sales and market for salted River Plate Hides has continued very quiet, and no change of moment in the relative position of buyers and sellers to note. In no week the late imports of the new slaughter are concerned, can be reported; the former observation as to disposition to ascertain the advanced views of the latter For the old a oak little inquiry has existed, and the greater part has been taken for home at full previous rates. Two cargoes of Rio Grandes and one of Montevideos are reported as having been sold, about, for outports, at 61 per lb. for the former and 62d per lb for the latter.

Sales, 8,500 salted River Plate, B. Ayres Ox, 60 to 61d per lb, 4lb and 5lb tare; light ox, 62 to 63d per lb at 52d to 53d per lb, and 4lb tare; extra heavy ox, 80 to 81 at 48d to 49d per lb, 4lb tare; light ox 49 to 50lb, at 53d to 54d per lb, and 4lb tare. Montevideo heavy ox, 62 lb, at 53d per lb, and 5 lb tare; light ox, 52d lb, at 54d per lb, and 4lb tare.

The present stock consists of 9135 hides.

REVOLUTION IN SALTA.

5,000 COMBATANTS IN ARMS.

The Brazilian steamer Ypanema arrived yesterday with news of a counter-revolution in Salta. It will be remembered that Governor Uriburu, two days before the expiration of his term of office, caused himself to be imprisoned by his nephew, another Uriburu, the latter having proclaimed Governor by a mock revolution. The people looking themselves now cheated, rose on the night of May 17th to expel the interloper, and put in his place Don Segundo Bedoya. The 'Eco' of Cordoba states that Uriburu with a garrison of 300 between soldiers (8th batt.) and youths, managed to hold possession of the principle square and the adjacent blocks, but Bedoya, at the head of the Deputies and 4000 men (including 400 in fantry well equipped), besieges the town. There was some fighting on the 20th, several houses were attacked. Bedoya's party is charged with having shot a Colonel and two Captains of Uriburu's faction, but private letters contradict this, and say that Bedoya's only reason for not taking the town by assault, is to avoid bloodshed, since the usurper cannot hold out many days, all his men deserting. Old Uriburu was only one day in prison, the force being fulfilled. The effect of the news in the city was that Uriburu had 3000 men, and moved his head-quarters from the city to a place called Sumalao. Also that Major Allara, with a body of 4 mounted troops, went in quest of Bedoya's rebels. These statements are not borne out.

There is great agitation in Tucuman, where the pacificator General Roja has just returned, from Santiago: it is thought he will try to bring about an arrangement with the Governor Guards of Metan (Salta), had marched on the capital, in support of Uriburu.

IMPORTANT.

The steam-tug 'Flying Fish, from England, for Buenos Ayres, to the Southern Railway Company, entered Pernambuco as the Parana (royal mail steamer) was leaving for Rio Janeiro, and desired to be reported.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT FROM THE BANDA ORIENTAL.

Return of Mr. Thornton.

Yesterday we were informed, on good authority, that Mr. Thornton had returned to Montevideo, having had an interview with Flores.—The result of the meeting, we are assured, is such as to justify the hope that peace will be made.

The Satellite, a British gun-boat is expected up this morning from Montevideo with Mr. Thornton and Messrs. Elizalde and Lanus on board. God grant that they will bring us news of the restoration of peace in the Republic of the Uruguay.

Dull times on the bolsa—everything talked about and going on save speculation in specie. A sympathetic but enterprising broker, finding business so monstrously dull, started a subscription for Mr. Wells, of balloon celebrity. The broker responded manfully to the call and a decent sum was got together in an hour. The list is still open and we hope to see a few more names put down. Exchange brokers are very busy, and bills were passed on England at 40¼d on a short credit. We heard of no charters to-day. But the old bilsh men were very busy, and there was no such thing as getting one word of information from them to-day. The "Nancy Bliley" had arrived at Bahia Blanca, but the Irish gentleman found that the whole wheat crop was lost this year.

It is a common saying among people in Buenos Ayres, when talking about the fluctuation of the paper money and the rise and fall in specie, "that there is great speculation going on," but we hold that this is utterly incorrect, for within the meaning of the term there is not a speculator in the River Plate.

The specious paper money which infests this country is jobbed about, and run up and down by persons destitute of capital, but who call themselves Speculation, in the true sense of the word, is utterly unknown in the River Plate. Our President, Ministers and Congressmen, who are worked to death in legislating and ruling a country not even half peopled, would be surprised to learn what one paper money speculator could effect in the River Plate. Possibly at some not very distant period a London or New York speculator may make his appearance on our Bolsa, but at present foreign merchants hold aloof, and dabbling in patacons is limited to a circle, incapable of causing much harm, and utterly powerless to effect any good. The fact of the matter is, that for the last few years we have watched closely our Bolsa affairs, and we can assure our readers that the reason why ounces do not rule to-day at $20 is because merchants who have goods to sell find it inconvenient, and men who have capital speculate now-a-days in houses in the city or lands in order to realize gold to ounces which are never forthcoming, or paper money without a guarantee. In former years fortunes were made in ounce speculations, and rich men created, but times have changed wonderfully, and the extent of the gains or losses now-a-days on the Bolsa average one or two thousand depreciated dollars. It is amusing to hear ounce brokers attribute the decline in their business to the change in quotations from ounces to patacons; it is laughable to listen to the grievances of a purely artificially commercial body. The fact of the matter is that foreign coin is now becoming not only so plentiful but so current, that the intervention of the specie broker is now hardly required. We all recollect when it was said the Germans are leagued and hold the specie, or the English have combined and possess the paper, but those are events of the past. Such rumors are no longer current. Why? Because there's not a foreign speculator in the Plate! Every day business is declining on the Bolsa—people are beginning to see that the most ruinous of all speculations is in the currency of the country. If the brokers seek to retain their business, it behoves them to introduce stocks, shares and bonds, for now-a-days people can buy and sell patacons without going near the Bolsa.

The Argentine Central Railway,
The Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway,
The Gas Co,
The Argentine Insurance Co.,
The National (Bisclumdal) Funds,
The Provincial Bonds.

These are legitimate securities to speculate in. A row in the provinces will drive them up or down as much as it is said to be with paper money. Brokers with little enterprise and courage might successfully introduce these securities. They would then, at least, have the satisfaction of knowing that their business was legitimate, and they interfered neither with the price of bread or the value of the first necessaries of life.

Ira Cavalieri.—Owing to press of matter, we have to hold over an article on this subject till to-morrow. In Thursday's monetary article there was a gross error, the word 'indefensible' appearing for 'indissoluble.'

There are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoners of war confined in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, for account of which, as given in private letters and in the newspapers, presents a picture of human suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times. The merest necessaries of life are wanting, and frequently the wounded prisoner has no raiment save that which is stark and stiffened with his clotted blood. Horrible as war is in all its features, assuredly it has no greater horrors than the long agony of the poor captive who, when the feverish excitement of the contest is over, is left to the bitter charity of strangers and foes, without one friendly hand to smoothe the pains of body or friendly voice to whisper hope and comfort to his despairing mind. These men, cut off from the assistance of their kindred or the protection of their Government, have peculiar claims on the patriotism of their countrymen in Europe, and upon christian benevolence everywhere. They did not recklessly or from choice embrace the profession of arms, but in exchanging the comforts, and often the luxuries, of home for the toils and hardships of a soldier's life, they accepted a stern sense of duty to repel all their country in its extremest need. An unusual proportion, also, of those that fill the ranks of the Confederate armies belong to the higher walks of life, upon whom privations, such as are endured by prisoners in the hands of the North, fall with increased severity.

The Southern Prisoners' Relief Fund is intended to mitigate some of these sufferings which cannot altogether be relieved. Within little more than a twelvemonth, nearly $2,000 have been collected and remitted in relief. The managers of the Fund are assisted in their efforts by self-devoted ladies in the principal Northern cities, who visit the sufferers and give them such aid as the means at their disposal render possible. Of late the Federal Government has granted permission that this Samaritan work may be done openly. It is earnestly hoped that all Southerners residing in South America will support the Fund to the extent of their ability, and its objects may recommend themselves to all, irrespective of country or political convictions, who sympathize with the sufferings of their fellow-men.

Contributions will be received by J H Ashbridge, Treasurer, Walmer Buildings, Water Street, Liverpool; or in London, by Henry Hotze, Esq., 8 Swiffin Row, 91 in Paris, by H Clercq, Esq., 6 Rue Cherubini; and Daniel Hubbard, Esq., 24 Rue Lord Byron. J18 1m.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA & C°.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated as the true great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place their most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important Institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an increase number of clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 rear of Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 noon for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
P. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p%] per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars current, or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers
